

ENTERTAINMENT APPLICATION

Bedford Fall Foliage Festival is always held the first two full weekends of October in quaint historic downtown Bedford, which is located in the foothills of the Appalachia Mountains in south central Pennsylvania – about 100 miles west of Harrisburg and 2 hours east of Pittsburgh. A variety of entertainment is offered on two stages – the Gazebo in the Town Square and a stage near the river in fort Bedford Park. Strollers can also be found roaming the festival grounds. Our festival is a rain or shine event and both stages offer protection from the element.

Bedford hosts 70,000+ visitor during the two weekends of Fall Foliage Festival in October, at which you may enjoy many genres of music – R&B, blues, country, bluegrass, jazz, rock & roll, oldies, rockabilly, and tribute bands. You may also be entertained by magicians, illusionists, and jugglers, to name a few.
